

HYDERABAD, SATURDAY, JULY 27, 2013

THE HINDU

INDIA'S NATIONAL NEWSPAPER SINCE 1

INSIDE HYDERABAD

SHORT TAKES

Puppet show on e-waste

Spoorthy Theatre for Educational Puppetry and Nokia's 'Create to Inspire (C2I)', conducted a puppet show on mobile phone e-waste at Ananth Technologies, Ananth Info IT Park, Madhapur recently. The puppet show highlighted the problems related to mobile phone e-waste, land filling and also stressed on the need to promote mobile recycling for e-waste management, a press release stated. On the occasion, an art gallery and photography exhibition with interactive jigsaw puzzles was organised. London-based documentary film maker Vicky Hari and editor and photographer Simon Temple screened their film 'Magic In Our Hands' at the venue.