To,

Spoorthi Theatre for Educational Puppetry, Art and Craft-STEPARC

Sub: Puppetry show by Padmini Rangarajan and team on Apr 17th @ Treasure House

The puppetry show by Smt Padmini and her team was wonderful. They were at Treasure House before time and set-up everything before the tiny tots arrived. Padmini's voice modulation and innovative puppets and interesting stories really captivated the audience. The rhythmic beats at intervals kept the kids involved. The voice over on the cds added to the professional ambience. What was especially nice was that they made up a story to suit the theme – magic & books that was well received.

We received positive feedback from the audience – the adults thought it was definitely worth their time driving long distances to attend the show. Kids also had nice things to say about the show.

We are now looking forward to Padmini coming back for her puppetry workshop starting mid May.

Sincerely,

Padma & Shubha
